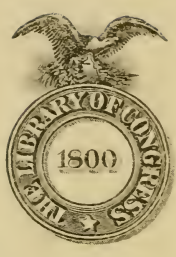
F
534
.I3C7

Facts about Indianapolis Indiana.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS



Class F534
Book .13C7

F534
I3C7
450 92

FACTS

ABOUT

INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANA

ISSUED BY THE COMMERCIAL CLUB
INDIANAPOLIS

THE LIBRARY

Facts About Indianapolis

Indianapolis has a population of 215,000, and ranks twentieth city in the United States.

In the last ten years it has made the largest gain of any city in the country. The net gain being 60.4 per cent; Chicago second, with a net gain of 54 per cent.

It is within 35 miles of the center of population of the United States.

More than 1,500,000 people are within two hours' ride of the city.

2,300 manufacturing plants, employing 33,000 people and paying $15,000,000 in wages annually.

Indianapolis is noted for its freedom from labor strikes and disturbances.

By means of 32 steam railroads and interurban lines all the great cities of the Central West can be reached in five hours.

Indianapolis has the only great Union Interurban Passenger and Freight Station in the world.

All freight depots are located in the heart of the city, within a radius of four squares.

A Belt Railroad surrounds the city, expediting shipments and furnishing factory sites.

150 miles electric street railroad under one system, at a four-cent fare, with universal transfers.

110 miles of paved streets, 151 miles of sewers, 245 miles of water mains. Sanitary conditions the best.

Within 50 miles of the most extensive coal fields in the world. Mine run coal laid down in the city at an average of $1.25 per ton.

Headquarters of the Independent and Central Union Telephone Companies. Rates for offices and stores $2.00 and $3.50 per month; residences, $1.50 to $2.00.

The resources of our Banks and Trust Companies aggregate $45,000,000.

Indianapolis is the fifth largest publishing city in the United States.

Indianapolis is noted the world over for its beautiful shaded streets and comfortable homes, second only to Philadelphia in the number of working men who own their own homes

Eight public parks within the city limits, covering 1,311 acres and three parks just outside with 310 acres.

Indianapolis is recognized by educators as having a model school system. Seventy school buildings and two great High Schools, one Academic and one Manual Training. A large Central Library with numerous branches in all parts of the city.

Forty-five hotels affording the best accommodations in the West.

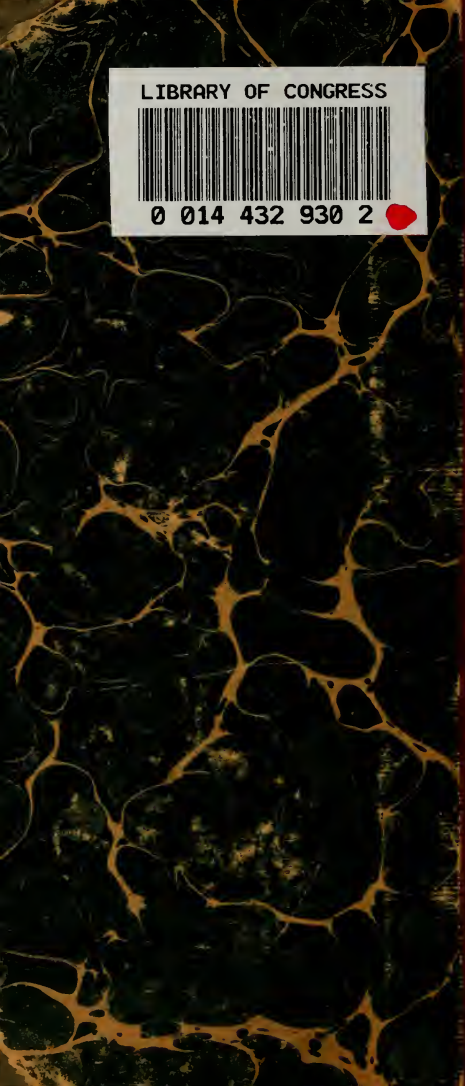
165 churches with a membership of 65,000.

New $2,000,000 Post Office and Federal Building just finished, completes chain of fine public buildings second only to Washington.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION ADDRESS

ROBERT G. McCLURE SEC'Y.

COMMERCIAL CLUB, INDIANAPOLIS



LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
0 014 432 930 2